Did you make a New Year's Resolution?

Tip 1) Don't feel obligated to keep it... too much pressure will not help achieve your goal.

Tip 2) Only make one. Change is hard, and too many changes and goals will make you lose focus and get overwhelmed.

Tip 3) If your goal is fitness related, grab a friend to join your workouts.

Tip 4) Are there technology items that could help you stay on track to achieve your goal?

Tip 5) Make health related goals easy— change is hard and you don't want to lose ambition to reach the goal.

Tip 6) If your goal is better sleep, change your routine to make your bed for Sleep, not work, reading, or hanging out.
