Reading List Books.

Dear Friends:
 Like many of you, I love to read- and when I am in the midst of a good book, my whole world seems a little better, a bit brighter. And, with the advent of electronic reading devices, we now have many more ways to access print. Being a "compulsive reader" (as one friend calls me) I always make sure I have plenty of book stock. I have a Kindle Paperwhite and subscribe to Kindle Unlimited. Amazon Prime allows me to check out one best seller once a month. I have RB Digital on my tablet to download electronic library books. I have access to thousands of electronic books through my university on my computer. But still...many times I download a book onto one of these devices and I find it wasn't what I was looking for, I lose interest, or it isn't a book of what I consider high quality. Funny enough I often find my best reads at the Elgin Public Library. I'm not sure if it is that hard copy books are more attractive or if the books are particularly well-chosen by our librarians- but I can always cheer myself by walking through the stacks and checking out the delicious selection. Our library contains over 38,000 items- most bought with the help of the Friends. Come browse and make your own day a little better. Laura Stough President, Friends of the Elgin Library.
